INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES, FREE

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and [illegible] give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of this Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this [illegible] section to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has gained so enviable a reputation.

The Ascent of Mount Jefferson

SEPTEMBER 2[illegible] 1868

EDITOR OREGONIAN

Having just returned from a trip to Mount Jefferson and vicinity which proved very interesting to myself I send you an account of the same

August 20th 1868—W. W. Beach, J. A. C[illegible] ker J. A. Crouch and myself left Jefferson Marion county for the purpose of climbing Mt. Jefferson and placing a Grant and Colfax banner on its summit. We entered the mountains by the way of the Quartzville wagon road—reached Quartzville August 23d. The place was lifeless as some city of the dead entombed and wrapped in mountain solitude. There was not a single inhabitant to give us a welcome to its quartz paved streets, or the hospitality of its log palaces. A solitary wolf on the mountain side was howling out his lamentations in rather a doleful key as we entered perched up somewhere in the vicinity of the White Bull. I think he was colloquizing that auriferous bovine.

There must have been a large amount of money spent in this vicinity in the attempt to make these quartz leads pay. There is a ten stamp quartz mill, a saw mill, and a number of other buildings, a railway one mile and a half up the side of the mountain to the tunnels for the purpose of conveying the ore down to the mill. All of which with the cost of the wagon road makes me think there has been fifty thousand dollars spent in the effort to make these leads pan out.

Leaving Quartzville we traveled in a northeast direction eight miles, to a place called the Meadows. Here we found several small prairies of from twenty to one hundred acres each, covered with fine grass and clover. These prairies shed their waters some into the South and some into the North Santiam. They occupy the summits of mountain ridges and are noted as fine hunting grounds—owing to their altitude the snow must lay very deep on them in the winter.

Our course from the Meadows lay in an easterly direction. I noticed to the right of the trail a large ledge of sandstone facing the south. It was water marked in many places with large holes as though a large body of water had at sometime poured over it. It now forms the face of a mountain ridge thousands of feet above any stream of water.

August 28th—Camped at Willow Prairie. It covers probably two sections of land and is very marshy. These prairies so frequently met with in the mountains, I think at one time have been lakes. The debris and soil carried down by the mountain streams gradually fills them up while each year a vegetation raises them to a higher level. I noticed that the most of the lakes in this vicinity (and there are a great number of them) are very shallow and in evident process of being filled up.

Aug 30th—In the afternoon came in sight of a large lake. Passing down a precipitous mountain, we camped on its shore. This is one of the most beautiful lakes it has ever been my good fortune to look upon. It is bedded so deep in the bosom of the mountain, no rough wind ever breaks the waveless repose of its waters. It is four miles long by two wide, oval in shape. The mountains come down so close on every side there is barely room for a narrow band of pebbly beach that circles round it—from some cause I think there is not a living thing in it. For an hour I stood on its shore and not a ripple was to be seen anywhere over its tranquil face. It must be an enlargement of one of the tributaries of the North Santiam. This lake is so locked in by the mountains that it is almost unapproachable or it would become as noted as some of the lakes of Switzerland. It discharges its waters to the north west and the stream is nearly as large as the Clackamas at Oregon City. Three miles below the lake its waters pour over two ledges of trap rock in falls of one hundred feet each. They are three hundred feet apart. The river below them for miles is one succession of rapids and cascades.

From the falls our course lay to the north east, Mt. Jefferson in full view, ten miles distant.

Sept 1st—Came unexpectedly on an encampment of Warm Spring Indians who were hunting and gathering berries. They were not communicative and would give us no information in regard to the best way of reaching the mountain nor would they hire us a guide to pilot us in. They were either displeased at our being on their hunting and berrying ground, or have some superstitious fear of the mountain. Failing to procure a guide we started to find the way in ourselves. Our direction still to the north east. Leaving the Indian camps and crossing a number of abrupt mountain ridges we came out upon a lovely valley immediately at the Southern base of the mountain though at so high an altitude it was covered with fine grass green as in the Spring. There were elk here in great numbers and Conser killed a two year old with a small single barrelled shot gun, which we thought pretty good for an amateur sportsman. We camped here three days, the wind blowing a perfect hurricane all the time from the east. It rained a little during the time and clouds of mist and smoke gathered so close about the top of the mountain its white summit was but rarely visible. In the meantime we found a place two miles farther up to which we removed camp.

On Sunday, Sept 6th we began the ascent of the mountain each one of us accoutered in the following order, one carried the flag staff, another the flag, another the coffee pot full of sticks, also the thermometer which we intended boiling at the summit to in some sort determine the altitude and last, the lunch by the commissary. As we proceeded, the vegetation grew sparse, a few stunted fir and pine were to be seen. The flora was scarce, some yellow flowers were in bloom here and there among the rocks, resembling the old fashioned marigolds of the gardens below. The lupine with its blue flowers was to be seen in many places and a great variety of mountain mosses. We were soon beyond the limits of vegetation climbing over fields of perpetual snow. I observed the snow in places had a reddish cast, approaching a crimson color. I am at a loss to know whether it is the true crimson snow of the Alps and the northern latitudes or if the color is due to a red [illegible] lava that is here very abundant. There was evidence of ancient volcanic action everywhere, cinders and ashes and huge blocks of granite thrown up in various shapes, sometimes one side would be melted into lava, while the other had retained its primitive structure. In others the upper and lower sides were melted while the center of the block was unchanged as though it had been subjected to fire above and below. Three hours and three quarters from the time of starting we reached an indentation in the south side of the mountain and found our further progress stopped by a perpendicular cone of rock that rose above us some three hundred feet, it is a kind of milk [illegible] shale and is rapidly crumbling away. A few hundred feet to the north is another cone of equal height. These pinnacles are each about two hundred feet across the base. On the east side of the mountain there are three circular depressions the edges of which have the appearance of ancient craters. Loose rock cinders snow and ice have nearly filled them up. To the south there was a large channel two miles long resembling an Alpine Moraine, terminating in a canyon that cut it at right angles. On the east side of the mountain there were a number of parallel breaks in the snow from which issue silver threads of water that from our height had the appearance of running up and over the ridges below us. Where the various parallel ridges attach themselves to the base of the mountain they describe graceful curves like the bows of a fleet of ocean steamers their prows all pointed to the apex of the mountain. These monster Great Easterns looked as though they were anchored in the air below us. Immersing the thermometer in boiling water the mercury stood at 196, which we think indicates an altitude of over twelve thousand feet. Here we raised the American flag, attached to the blue field was a beautiful Grant and Colfax badge beneath which was the name of Miss Mary A. Conser. This lady had presented the flag to the company requesting us to place it on the summit of Mt. Jefferson. Long may it wave from the mountain top. It is probably the highest Grant and Colfax banner in the United States. We gave three cheers for the flag, three for Grant and Colfax sang Rally Round the Flag Boys—concluded with the doxology to the tune of Old Hundred. After having refreshed ourselves with a lunch, descended the mountain.

C. B. ROLAND.

On Tuesday, 15th inst., the same day that it was so dark and the ashes were blown on the sidewalks in town, Cedar camp was entirely destroyed and the Gerkin boys lost everything, including about fifty thousand cedar shingles. They fought the fire until they were satisfied nothing could be saved. The men, Sam Cornelius and two Riggs boys, attempted to make their escape by the Abiqua route, as that was the only practicable way. In traveling they got lost, as it was so dark they could not tell day from night, and thus did not arrive at Silverton until the Friday following, being four days and a half. This fire made its appearance at the lime kiln about the same time, burning everything, green as well as dead timber. Jacob Bales, who lives at the head of Rock creek, had his barn and all his hay and grain burned, but succeeded in saving his dwelling. His loss was about seven hundred dollars. Mr Cooper says that at the time he left the fire was seven miles long and about five or six in width. It sounded like a storm at sea. It came within half a mile of his place. Teams have since been there for lime, and report that the fire had passed by. None of the men who were at work at that place remained

Gold has been found on Clearwater river in paying quantities. Miners have already commenced work with rockers and are making from four to five dollars per day. The distance from Lewiston to the mines is but seven miles

James Fountain and Joseph Eastman met with a severe loss on Camas Prairie, above Lewiston on the 10th inst. Some 1 500 bushels of grain in sack and seventy tons of hay were consumed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of Indians as they have heretofore made threats to burn them out

A fatal accident occurred in Flint District, Owyhee on the 13th instant. A heavy timber was being raised at the Rising Star mill when one of the guy ropes attached to the gin pole broke letting fall the timber which struck a man named Charles Wilson on the building causing him to fall twenty feet to the ground. Almost instant death ensued.

Says the Boise Statesman: Judge Cum[illegible], on the way East stopped two days at Salt Lake, during which time he learned that the surveying parties of the Union and Central had met, and that the point of connection by the two roads will be 150 or 200 miles west of Salt Lake. Surveying on the Idaho and Oregon branch of the Union Pacific is suspended for the season in consequence of Gen Dodge being ordered East by the company to re-locate a portion of the road.

The Owyhee paper of the 19th says: Another rich quartz discovery has been made on the mountain to the left of Jordan Creek about two and a half miles from town. P J Ro[illegible] and others are the locators and have christened the discovery the Seymour. The vein is represented as being from three to four feet wide and prospects rich in both gold and silver. The quartz is decomposed and large quantities of it can be very easily taken out

The Great Railroad

The San Francisco Bulletin concedes that one railroad from Salt Lake to the Pacific States will not suffice for much length of time. It is quite certain that journal remarks that some railroad communication will be had from the Columbia river touching the rich mining regions of Idaho and entering the great continental railroad near Salt Lake. The San Francisco Commercial Herald has the following on a phase of the railroad subject which is giving that city a good deal of concern:

Private advices from a merchant of Salt Lake City give us the unwelcome information that the route selected by the Central Pacific Railroad Company will probably deprive San Francisco of the Salt Lake City trade and give it to New York. He says that heretofore the merchants of that place have been able to obtain their supplies via San Francisco from one to three cents less on the pound than it would cost to fetch them freight from New York. So far this year he has imported 100 000 pounds from this city and had by no means completed his purchases.

The Union Pacific Company is building a branch road direct to Salt Lake City tapping the main trunk 150 miles east of that place whereas the Central Company has ignored Salt Lake altogether and will meet the Union Company's road 100 miles north of it. The trade of Utah is of too much importance to be recklessly thrown away and the only way to secure it is by building a branch direct to Salt Lake. Should this be done the main trunks north of that city for the distance of 150 miles on each will scarcely come into immediate requisition, as the branches will do nearly all the business.

Why the original route leading direct to Salt Lake City should have been changed and diverted around the head of Great Salt Lake 100 miles north of the city and entirely out of the way of the business population of that Territory, [illegible] Any natural [illegible] interfered with the [illegible] must be [illegible] to a direct branch as it must be constructed over precisely the same ground [illegible] New York to fur[illegible] supplies needed by the tens of thousands of Deseret and as a branch road must be built to avoid such a catastrophe, why not commence it at once?

From the New York Shipping List, Sept. [illegible]

Hitherto the trade between New York and Oregon has not been of much importance the merchants of Portland, Salem and other [illegible] in the Webfoot State having been [illegible] to receive their Eastern supplies of merchandise by way of San Francisco, their return shipments of wool hides flour &c taking the same route. But within the last year or two, the Oregonians have [illegible] no little dissatisfaction at the indirect method of doing business with the Eastern States, claiming that a considerable percentage of the profits have gone unnecessarily into the pockets of San Francisco merchants. To obviate this, Messrs. Brockway & Baker of this city, have been induced to establish a regular line of sailing vessels to Portland, a thriving city in Oregon. The first vessel the brig Sallie Brown, was despatched in April last, with a cargo of about 700 tons, and the [illegible] the barque Oonyx, cleared out a few days since with a similar cargo of 800 tons. The four-masted ship Hattie C. Besse is now on the berth, at pier 9 East River. The H. C. B. was formerly the gunboat [illegible], built at the Charlestown, Mass. Navy Yard. She has been lately overhauled, and converted into a sailing vessel, at Wilmington, Delaware. [illegible] the [illegible] trade between the [illegible] States and our Northwestern [illegible] the Pacific there can scarcely be a doubt of the success of the "Pioneer Line" to Portland Oregon.

Oregon's Secession Ordinance

By all means we desire the Democratic majority in the Legislature to pass Trevitt's resolutions abrogating the Constitution of the United States. Let them come out squarely for nullification. Elected by the votes of Democrats from the Southern army, it is fit that they should perpetrate this act of rebellion. Those of their constituents who carried arms for the rebel Confederacy expect that they will do it. The measure will operate virtually as an act of secession, for if Oregon through her Legislature assumes the right to annul a part of the Constitution and refuses to allow its provisions to be executed within her limits, what is that but a repetition of what South Carolina did a few years ago? It is the very same exhibition of "Democratic principles" over again. Then let the majority in the Legislature go on with their programme, pass their act annulling and defying the Constitution, and see what will come of it. If Oregon under their leadership undertakes to maintain a position of hostility to the fundamental law, they may assure themselves that the Government of the United States will find a way to enforce its authority here. The Democratic doctrine of "no coercion" was exploded some years ago. Then let them adopt Trevitt's resolutions, and follow the example set by South Carolina in 1860. Let them take the advice of the Carolina rebel who made the New York platform, and do as he commands them. It is the nature of their party to be rebellious, and whenever it has an opportunity it exhibits its real character. It was born in rebellion when Washington was President, and that great man warned his countrymen that on the principles that party advocated the Government could not stand. If Oregon can throw off one portion of the Constitution, of course she can throw off all the rest. The principle is the same, and the power to do the one is the same as to do the other. Let the Democratic majority in the Legislature therefore adopt this ordinance of secession. We want to see it go on the record. It will serve to show what the party is, and what it would have done, had it carried the State in time of the great rebellion. It is worthy of remark that while this party is denying the validity of the Constitution and the authority of the United States, it is asking the National Government for large subsidies for railroads and other purposes. This is about as cool as the action of the Southern States in seceding, [illegible] the public property and leaving the Government to pay the debts which had been incurred in building the forts, arsenals and mints which they seized and claimed the right to take out of the Union with them. "Democracy" is equal to any required effort of impudence. The "time-honored principles" are elastic enough for anything.

Another thing which this Legislature should do is to pass a law to tax United States bonds. They have promised to do it, now let the promise be fulfilled. The people have heard this [illegible] howl about the injustice of allowing these bonds to go untaxed, quite long enough. They have been assured by Democratic demagogues that the States have power to levy such a tax, and that it is right for them to do it; now let this Legislature enact the law and see what will come of that. Let them do it, or shut up on the bond question forever!

Their Spirit Three Years Ago.

When the rebel General, Jeff Thompson, disbanded his troops at the overthrow of the rebellion, he took occasion to tell them some plain truths in a plain way. His language is worth reproducing as an evidence of the feeling of the rebels after they were whipped and before Johnson's apostasy and Democratic assurances of support encouraged them to hope that they "could yet regain all they had lost in the war." On dismissing his men, Thompson gave them this plain advice:

> Now I want you to go home and work hard, and take care of your families. Work early and late and get up at night and see if your crops are growing. Above all things avoid political discussion. If any man says "nigger" to you, swear that you never saw one in your life. We have talked about the niggers for forty years and have been out talked; we have fought four years for the niggers and have been d—d badly whipped, and now it is not "your put," the Yankees have won the nigger and will do what they please with him, and you have no say in the matter; if they want him they will take him, and if they say you must keep him, you have to do it and no mistake. I tell you that you have no say in the matter, and you oughtn't to have.

This was putting the truth in a direct and forcible way. The rebels then didn't expect to have anything to say about the terms and conditions of reconstruction and reconciliation, it wasn't "their put." Said their commander further:

> I want to talk to you Missourians; you are talking about going to your old homes to live again. What did every one of you say last fall when you went into Missouri and expected to remain there? Why, that you would make "every Union man climb a tree" and many threats of a similar character. Now do you think that these Union men whom you threatened with the halter but a few days ago, if you got the power, are going to permit you to come and live among them and have all the privileges that they enjoy? Not much.

Still more explicit in the following:

> Do not complain if you are not permitted to have a voice in elections and civil affairs. You have forfeited all such rights, and it now becomes you to submit to such laws and regulation as the Federal authorities may deem proper to enact.
> We are conquered, subjugated, we have no rights, but must accept such privileges and favors as the Government may see proper to bestow upon us.

This doctrine is just as wholesome now as it was when first uttered. It has not lost one whit of its force or application by the lapse of time. It shows what the rebels expected when they surrendered. Those who conquered them expected also that they would submit exactly in the way this rebel commander advised. But things have changed since then; and now we find these conquered rebels insisting on their right to give laws to the country and threatening another rebellion if their assumed right to do this is denied! And all the while the Northern Democrats are encouraging them in their insolent demands.

All who wish to hear an excellent speech should be out at Oro Fino Hall to-morrow night. Mr. Garfielde's effort in behalf of Grant and Colfax will be worth hearing.

One of our Democratic papers says: "We must get every voter out." It's no use to try it, Gov. Woods won't pardon them.

The New York Tribune says of Robert E. Lee: "If we believed in constructive treason or admitted the popular doctrine that rebellion should be punished by hanging, we should take General Lee as a conspicuous example. Of all the rebels, civil and military, he was perhaps the most gifted, the most dangerous and the most wanton. As a soldier he carried the confidence of his chief to the camp of Rebellion, and aided in swaying Virginia into the war, without cause or provocation. Men rebelled from fanaticism, ignorance, devotion to Slavery. Gen. Lee was a Rebel from ambition."

Frank Leslie's Illustrated, speaking of Grant, after showing who Seymour is, says: "We have nothing to say as regards General Grant. All the world knows who he is. To paraphrase the epitaph on Sir Christopher Wren, in St. Paul's Cathedral: 'Would you see his monument, look around you!' so we say of Grant, 'Would you know who he is, read the brightest page of your country's history!'"

A Little Rock (Ark.) dispatch of Sept. 4th says Nineteen Republicans have been assassinated in Columbia county within ten days. One man was shot with eleven bullets for shouting for Grant. A perfect reign of terror exists in the few counties where there are large rebel majorities, but all is quiet in counties where there are Republican majorities, and also in rebel counties where the Mountain Feds live.

A San Francisco merchant says the Oakland Transcript, who is now in New York, says that if he could see the slightest chance of the election of Seymour, he would buy all the goods his credit would allow and ship them to this coast, because he says, greenbacks would fall to such a figure that he could pay for the goods with a very small sum, and double his money. Such is the opinion of a good financier.

In the Republican procession at Bangor, Maine, recently, was a wagon filled with mutilated Union soldiers, bearing the motto: "This is what we owe to the Democratic party." One of their old tattered battle flags bore this significant legend: "We go for Seymour as we went for Lee."

It is said that the Democracy in their present desperate straits are ready to seize hold of anything presented to them. If that's the case will somebody please extend them the hot end of a poker?

Late News from Washington

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18

PERSONAL.

Judge Bond of Baltimore leaves for Pittsburg to-morrow, to speak in that city on Saturday.

BINCKLEY.

Binkley has arrived from New York and is laid up for repairs at his residence. He has not reported officially in any quarter, and refuses to see any of his friends, on the plea that he is very busy preparing a full report of his adventures in New York for the President. The report is that he could not see his friends even if he had admitted them.

WILL ACCEPT COLORED VOTERS.

The original Johnson Conservative Club of the District met last night, and changed the name to Seymour and Blair club, and then proceeded to amend the constitution by striking out the word "white" in the clause defining eligibility to membership. The Democrats of the District squirm considerably over the matter. The principal speaker of the evening began as follows:

"I believe the purpose of the Radical party to be to inaugurate revolution and monarchical despotism, and for one I am ready for the issue. Although, perhaps not physically able to shoulder my musket in the army, still let revolution come, and I shall defend my domicile in case of invasion, by the might of my arm with a knife or any weapon with which I can slay a venomous adversary."

The speaker continued in this strain at some length, when the club passed a vote of thanks and adjourned.

THE ASHBURN MURDERERS.

The President's treatment of Gen. Meade has been curious, to say the least. The General brought with him the official report entirely exploding all the rebel stories about the ill treatment of the Ashburn murderers, and then asked permission to print it. The President got the report into his hands, and then had a statement, purporting to be General Meade's report, prepared and sent to all the Democratic papers, virtually admitting the ill treatment, designed to forestall Meade's report.

TRUE.

A number of leading Democrats have written to the New York World expressing the very decided opinion that the assaults of that journal on Gen. Grant are making Radical voters more rapidly than any course they could pursue.

THE OCEAN MAIL SERVICE.—A cable dispatch from London, transmitted a few days ago to the Associated Press, announced that the ocean mail service between the United States and Great Britain, by way of the Southampton line, would soon be discontinued, and that the mails would all be sent by British steamers from Queenstown. The dispatch added that notwithstanding this arrangement was known to be in accordance with the proposition which was made to the Postmaster-General some time ago by Anthony Trollope, agent of the British postal authorities, Americans in London hesitated to believe that their Government had assented to an arrangement which would reduce the present revenue by nearly one half. On investigation the report proves to be untrue. The United States Post Office Department has not consented to the discontinuance of the mails by the way of Southampton, but, on the contrary, has made all arrangements possible for continuing after the present contract shall have expired. The treaty made with Mr. Trollope for that purpose, has not been ratified, but it will be before the present contract expires.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

GEN. GRANT AND THE COTTON TRADERS.—Some of the Democratic papers recently accused Gen. Grant of having, in 1862, at the instance and for the profit of his father, given to a Cincinnati firm, Mack & Brothers, a special privilege to trade in cotton. But Mr. Henry Mack, in a recent law suit, stated under oath that Gen. Grant refused his firm this special privilege, and that Grant used these words: "I am always pleased, sir, to render any proper assistance in my power to my friends, but I am a general of the army of the United States Government, and I cannot discriminate between its citizens. I do not know why my father should write asking such a favor. It can have no influence with me. The request is improper, as it would give one an advantage over another, and would lead to that demoralization which it is my endeavor to prevent. The attention of the military cannot be diverted from the work in hand, viz: saving the country. You can take out a permit and trade along the river as others are doing, and I shall be pleased to hear of your success."

RONDO OR KENTUCKY.—The Second Adventists are now holding a meeting in Janesville, Wisconsin, and have concluded that the end of all things earthly will take place on the first of next October. The other day the preacher was much annoyed by a Republican and Democrat on the outskirts of the meeting discussing as to who would be the next President. The preacher approached them and said: "My dear friends you are exciting yourselves unnecessarily, and wasting precious time in speculating as to the future President of the United States, for before an earthly election takes place, our blessed Lord will be President everywhere." "I'll bet you $10," said the Democrat, "that he can't carry Kentucky."

STEAM HOD CARRIER.—A new style of hod carrier is to be seen at work at the new building in Broadway, near Crosby street, consisting of an elevator worked by a small donkey engine, which attracts much attention. A similar machine is used at the Park Bank, Stewart's store and other new buildings. The Irish emigrant who wrote home that it was so easy to make a living in America—"all you have to do is to carry a little box up the ladder and then the other man does all the rest"—would be doubtless much astonished at this change, which is only another instance of the way that muscle is being superseded by steam.—N. Y. Sun.

The World figures up a lovely prospect for Seymour and Blair and thereupon exclaims:

No wonder Radicalism is in the dumps and down in the very valley of the shadow of death!

Certainly not! It is natural as life! But isn't it a wonder, now, that with such a lead sure thing for Seymour nobody ventures to cover the $10,000 left at the St. Nicholas and the tens of thousands put up by George Wilkes to bet on Grant?—N. Y. Tribune.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—The news from Spain is meagre. Official reports state that the news is favorable. The Emperor has invited Prince Napoleon to Paris to consult on Spanish affairs.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The Moniteur has the following from Spain:

Catalonia is quiet. Rumor of a battle between the Royal army under Pavia and the insurgents under Serrano is momentarily expected. At last accounts the hostile forces were nearing each other.

The Sultan was sent to Queen Isabella by Gen. Concha, praying that the young Prince of Austria, their opponent, might go to the Capital to assume the government of the nation. The Queen refused, and returned a reply that the Prince should not rule a people of robbers and assassins.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—No official dispatches have been received from Madrid since Friday. The following account comes from other sources: The revolution in Spain is the result of constitutional, moderate and liberal parties in an effort to overthrow the reigning dynasty. The fleet has joined the movement because the sailors are unpaid, and the greater part of the army revolted because they are indignant at the exile of their favorite Generals. The Church, which is bound by every tie to the Queen, resists and holds the masses in check. As far as can be ascertained from various reports received to the present hour insurrection extends throughout the provinces of Cadiz, Seville, Cordova, Huelva, Granada, Valencia, Alicante, Caceres, Malaga, Vigo, Ferrol, Corunna, La Grand, Almeria and Oviedo. Many armed bands have appeared in the provinces of Huesca, Saragossa, Teruel and Navarre.

He was obliged to stop his march and wait for reinforcements from Cuidad, Real and Badajos, which at last accounts, had not reached him. The Province of Biscay sent troops from San Sabastian for the protection of the Queen. In Andalusia the telegraph wires have been cut and the railroads have been cut up.

FOREST HILL, Sept. 26.—A sad accident occurred this morning. A man named John Aborne, better known as "York," was accidentally killed in the Mountain Company by the falling of timber down a shute.

California Dispatch.

FOLSOM, Feb. 26.—The Tremont House, owned by Wm. Murray and occupied by J. D. Saunders, together with the lumber yard owned by R. C. Quigley, was destroyed by fire yesterday (Sunday) between 4 and 5 o'clock P. M. The fire originated in a small building, situated between the Tremont House and the American river [illegible]. The flames spread so rapidly that it was not till [illegible] anything except a greater portion of the furniture of the Tremont House. The loss of the Tremont House is estimated at $[illegible], and covered by an insurance of only $2,000, of which the Manhattan company has the benefit. The loss of the lumber yard is estimated at $2,500 and no insurance.

SAN ANDREAS, Sept. 27.—A terrible conflagration occurred here last night. Over sixty houses are in ashes. The fire was discovered at 5 o'clock P. M. last evening, in McKee's stable. It spread rapidly on St. Charles street to the Methodist Church and Sheriff Thorn's residence, west to Stockton street, the brick stores of Harris and Sullivan escaping; south on Gate wood Avenue and Main street to Hall's residence and Irvine's farm, north and west of Main street to the Express and Telegraph office, the stone store of Tussara escaping; east of Main street below St. Paul escaping with small loss. It is difficult at the present moment to calculate the actual loss, but it is estimated at $75,000. Much valuable property was saved by the almost superhuman exertions of our citizens. Many families are without shelter.

Murder and Suicide

FOLSOM, Sept. 28.—A man by the name of Shaft, living at Mormon Island, was shot last night under the following circumstances: Having occasion to rise in the night and getting out of his bed he saw what he supposed to be a large dog in the corner of his room; he [illegible] toward the door and was shot in the abdomen, the ball passing through his body. The would be murderer jumped up and fired again, the ball taking effect in the hand. Shaft lies in a critical condition and it is supposed the wounds will prove fatal. No clue of the perpetrator has yet been obtained.

A German by the name of [illegible] employed by [illegible] at Bay ground, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver.

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, Sept. 25—4 P. M.—The steamer Geo. S. Wright, three days from Portland, arrived yesterday.

A [illegible] has been discovered at [illegible] fifteen miles from this city. The seam is about [illegible] feet [illegible] and the quality of the coal is [illegible] very good.

The mortality among the Indians in the vicinity of this city has caused considerable alarm. It is estimated that about fifty deaths have occurred during the last month. The nature of the disease is unknown. [illegible] have taken all necessary measures to prevent the [illegible] from spreading. Every case attended [illegible] burial immediately after death. Hundreds of Indians have been sent away from the city and the number of deaths is on the decrease.

BY DALLES TELEGRAPH

DALLES, Sept. 28.—The following is from the Idaho Statesman: We are indebted to Mr. Luckett for the following particulars of a stage accident near Silver City [illegible]. Mr. [illegible] was at Silver City at the time the stage arrived and had a good opportunity to get a correct account. At about daylight on Thursday morning, when the up stage reached a point about eight miles beyond Silver City, coming around a curve and being heavily laden, overbalanced and upset, throwing Mr. French, Wells Fargo & Co's messenger, against a cottonwood tree, killing him instantly. The driver, G. Livermore and Mr. Ward were also on the outside with the [illegible] messenger. The former fell between the wheel horses and escaped with slight bruises. Mr. Ward was taken from under the stage badly bruised, but not supposed to be dangerously hurt. The inside passengers consisted of Mr. Greathouse, wife and daughter and [illegible] Woodward and [illegible], all of whom fortunately escaped [illegible]. The remains of Mr. French were [illegible] Silver City for burial. He leaves a young wife [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The political issue was never plainer than now. On one side we have the enemies of the country; on the other its friends. It is the issue of Sumter over again.

WHY SEYMOUR GOT THE NOMINATION.—It is impossible for the supporters of Seymour to produce a speech or letter of any kind, containing a single earnest word in favor of putting the rebellion down by fighting the war through to the end. On the contrary, he at the outset supported Buchanan in permitting the rebellion to get a foothold. He afterwards said the Confederate was a better Constitution than the Federal, and asked, "why not make the exchange?"—that is, why not tear down the temple of our fathers and erect on its ruins the substitute of traitors? As a politician at every stage of the struggle, he was on the side of the South, and in 1864 was conspicuous among those who denounced the war as "a failure" and demanded peace, even at the cost of the Union. He instigated the mob as a flank movement in favor of Lee, who was then invading Pennsylvania. He or naked and sneered and predicted failure on the very day Grant was receiving the surrender of Vicksburg and Meade was engaged in that memorable life and death struggle at Gettysburg. From the first to last Horatio Seymour earnestly desired the success of the Jeff Davis Confederacy, and to-day he is no less devoted to the rebel leaders and their cause. For this reason he was made the Democratic candidate by a convention where, as Wade Hampton declares, the South had but to make known its wishes to have them gratified.

ZINC IN MISSOURI.—Missouri has not only her mines of iron ore, her veins and placers of galena extending over some 6,000 square miles of territory 26,000 square miles of her total area, and cropping of copper ore that have been discovered in some fifteen counties, her rich ores of zinc, carbonates and silicates occupy no subordinate position in her mineral treasures. The time, it seems, has arrived when ingots of metallic zinc can bear substantial testimony to the opening up of a new industry. The new works are located at Potosi, a short distance from St. Louis. The supply of zinc ores in Missouri is said to be immense. Capital has been successfully invested in them, and we may hope for the development of an industry that will not only make itself felt through the whole country, but also give to the State eventually a prominent position as regards the zinc trade of the world. The Missouri cobalt and nickel mines are still unworked.

PRUSSIA AND MEXICO.—Some time ago Mr. Seward wrote Mr. Bancroft to ascertain how Bismark felt about recognizing the Mexican Republic, and to urge him to do it. Bismark agreed, and directed Baron Gerolt here to confer with Mr. Seward about it. Mr. Seward sent word to Juarez that Prussia was ready to send a minister to Mexico, if desired. Juarez replied that, the Mexican Republic having lately expelled the representatives of all powers which had recognized Maximilian, before receiving a minister, a new treaty of friendship would be a suitable preliminary. This, in turn, Bismark declines.

THE WONDERS OF THE TELEGRAPH.—A few days ago the New York Sun, referring to the subject of a telegraph for China, inquired how it would be possible for it to be employed where over 80,000 characters are used in the written language. A telegrapher has answered by saying that it is proposed to employ a system (a French invention) by which an exact copy of the original writing or drawing is reproduced by the recording instrument. This system has been practically tested and found available for sending drawings, autographs, letters or anything that can be made with a pen or brush upon a flat surface.

MORRISSEY VS. POMEROY.—It is believed that "Brick Pomeroy" migrated to New York in order to obtain a nomination to Congress. John Morrissey wants the same position, and these two men, fair representatives of the rank and file of the party, cherish anything but feelings of love for each other. Morrissey considers Brick to be a carpet bagger and he believes that a Democratic carpet bagger is as bad as a Radical carpet bagger.

The Copperhead papers are unreasonably hard on their friends in printing long winded articles designed to prove Gen. Grant a blundering, miserable soldier; for, if the conqueror is such a blockhead, what must the conquered be?

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE, that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him, and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of. In conformity with that law, it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex, who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and [illegible], should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below their houses. Men more [illegible] and less calculating than our fair ladies should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel indeed are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's No. 91 Front street.

Gov. Thomas E. Bramlette, of Kentucky, may be considered pretty good Democratic authority. At a meeting at Center Valley, Indiana, on the 27th ultimo, Bramlette talked thus of Johnson and Grant. Speaking of the events following the surrender at Appomattox, he said:

"General Grant gave them (the rebels) his parole of honor that they should not be hurt. When Lee was afterward indicted, Mr. Johnson was still very bitter. I well remember his coming into camp Dick Robinson, after having been driven out of Tennessee, and how very bitter he was against the men of that State. Grant remonstrated against Gen. Lee's punishment, and at length compelled the District Attorney to quash the indictment. Since that time Mr. Johnson has quieted down. Then he was drunk all the time, and when drunk, he was very fierce all the time. Old Frank Blair took him out to White Sulphur Springs, got his head cooled off, got him sobered down, and he has been fighting the Radicals ever since."

Election Returns.—After a thorough canvass of the vote of public opinion, it must be gratifying to all those laboring under PULMONARY AFFECTIONS, of whatever character, to know that a unanimous verdict has been given in favor of the unequalled efficacy of NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP, over all other remedies, for coughs, colds, consumption, bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough, etc., etc.

Incredible as it may appear, that one compound should be adapted to the treatment of such a variety of diseases, it is nevertheless true, that DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM, will do all that is claimed for it. Its grand mission is to subdue pain, and bring glad tidings of great joy to the suffering.

Electro-Silicon.—This curious and valuable substance is confidently claimed to be the BEST ARTICLE ever discovered for cleaning and polishing Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, and all smooth metallic surfaces of whatever description, including Kitchen utensils of tin, copper, brass, steel, etc.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 685 AND 681 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his [illegible], seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Democracy Going it Blind

(From the Sacramento Union.)

The proceedings of the Democrats in the Oregon Legislature indicate that Bourbonism still reigns supreme in the party, learning nothing from [illegible]. The leaders of the Seymour army in that State have proposed to withdraw its ratification of the Constitutional Amendment Article XIV. Such proposition assumes that this amendment has not become part of the Constitution, though Congress has so declared and Seward has distinctly so declared in his certificate of July 28th. The Oregon Democrats appear to be oblivious of this last final and [illegible] paper from the office of the Secretary of State. Perhaps they may not have heard of it. It details in full the action taken in each State, giving the dates when each voted for or against ratification, and making no distinction in its manner of mentioning the several Legislatures. It is not a conditional certificate like that of July 20th, in which the Secretary disclaims any authority to determine and decide doubtful questions as to the authenticity of the organization of State Legislatures. It does not state as in the certificate of July 20th that "It further appears from documents on file in this Department that the amendment has also been ratified by the newly constituted and newly established bodies avowing themselves to be and acting as the Legislatures respectively of the States of Arkansas, Florida, etc." But it specifies distinctly that the amendment has been ratified by the Legislature of Connecticut at such a date, and by the Legislature of Arkansas at such a date, and so of all the others, and concludes as follows: "The States thus specified being more than three fourths of the States of the United States, I do further certify that the said amendment has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States." The number of States enumerated by Seward is thirty, of which Ohio and New Jersey withdrew their assent before the ratification was complete, still leaving, however, the requisite number of twenty-eight concurring States. Whatever may be thought of the ability of a State to recede before ratification is complete, no one but a secessionist can claim the liberty to do so after the necessary three fourths vote has been once arrived at. This is unquestionably the present condition of things, and the Oregon Democracy in their zeal for restoring [illegible] are a little behind the times. Their [illegible] can be based only on the theory that the ratifications of the reconstructed States are illegal and void. This may be their claim, for it is consistent with the Seymour and Blair programme of revolution. But why signify this opinion by such a step? Why does every Democratic Legislature seek to overthrow the Fourteenth Article? What is there in it objectionable to patriotic men? It protects us against the compensation for slaves which the Maryland rebels have demanded of us, and which the whole traitor crew will ask for if we allow the Democratic party to come into power. Are we anxious to have $3,000,000,000 added to our national debt in order to pay the [illegible] over to the rebels for the slaves they used in building fortifications against our armies? This Amendment also protects us against the assumption of the rebel debt. Under the Johnson policy, rebel bonds rose in the English market, and the sanguine hopes of the rebel bondholders would be again excited if there were any prospect of Seymour's election. We know by experience that what our rebel opponents will take is limited only by what they can get. There is no doubt they will ask for pay for their slaves and other kinds of property in the war. They have already done this. After the war, some of them, red handed with the blood of loyal men, came to Washington and coolly demanded [illegible] due them as members of Congress. Their modesty never stands in the way of their advancement. If it is found impossible, in addition to compensation for slaves, to saddle us also with their debt, they will demand as a compromise the repudiation of our own. That will make payment for the slaves easier and give us bloated slaveholders instead of bloated bondholders. The Democracy always had an admiration for the former, and [illegible] intolerance for the burdens of war and debt they imposed upon us. This [illegible] the reason why they are so anxious to break down the XIVth Article, and let their traitor aristocracy come in again to possess and rule the land. This [illegible] prevents none of these men from voting—deprives them of no property or personal right. It only temporarily disqualifies from holding office those who broke their oaths [illegible] once before; so that we shall not be in danger of being called upon again to settle their bills for back pay after their next rebellion. The amendment also provided that, if the rebel class succeed in their several States and carry out their schemes for disfranchising the freedmen, they shall not vote for the blacks as well as for themselves and thereby have, each of them, a ballot twice as powerful as that of a white man in the North. It [illegible] that nobody but a complete and utter toady of the Lost Cause can find any objection to this amendment, or say that it is not a reasonable and even necessary guarantee of the future. But the Copperhead and rebel Democracy are blind to events, deaf to all appeals of patriotic prudence. Nothing will satisfy them but a complete surrender of loyal men and the loyal cause. We must lay down at the feet of Lee the banner that Grant and Sherman, Sheridan and Thomas bore on to victory. We must admit that the arrogant Toombs is right in calling Union men the "greatest criminals of the century." We must concede that the rebels were right, their cause just, and that it is our duty to let them rule over us. We cannot see it in that light.

[illegible] for Grant.

ADDRESS TO THE WELSHMEN OF THE UNITED STATES

The following address has been issued to the Welsh citizens in Oneida county (Governor Seymour's residence). We seldom hear of our Welsh citizens taking sides as a class in politics.

To the Welsh Residents in Oneida County:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—At the request of the Committee of the Welsh Grant and Colfax Club, formed in the city of Utica, we desire humbly and earnestly to call your attention to the importance that every one of you should vote in an honest, enlightened and conscientious manner in the coming election. We do not wish to say anything concerning the personal character of either of the candidates for the high power of President and Vice President of the United States. But we are fully convinced that the principles professed by Grant and Colfax are most in accordance with the politics of the United States for the last eight years, and agree better with the principles of liberty, truth and justice, and are more likely to lead the whole country to peace, comfort, prosperity and honor. It appears to us that the principles and speeches of the Democratic party naturally lead to the [illegible] ment [illegible] in the South, thus [illegible] useless [illegible] sacrifice of property and lives made by the [illegible] in the late war, if not leading us into another war more destructive and terrible in the future. We well know that the Democrats are the great defenders of the traffic in intoxicating drinks, which causes such destruction of property and lives throughout the land and prove such hindrance to the material, moral and religious improvement of mankind. In their ranks are found those who would rob us of our Sabbath and make it a day of trade and play. On their side also are those who rebelled against the government and caused the great war which proved the death of hundreds of Welshmen and thousands from other nations.

The trade prospect is also worthy of attention. We are promised if the Democrats are placed in power, that the taxes will be less, and that the public money will be managed more economically. But their former history when in power gives us but very little room to expect economy from them, and their financial schemes [illegible] lead to any improvement in the circumstances of the country. [illegible] and its progress and development will be hindered for many years to come. This is our opinion conscientiously formed, and while we allow to others the same liberty to judge as we claim to ourselves, we urge you one and all to vote for Grant and Colfax, and our earnest desire is that every Welshman throughout the United States should do the same.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most expert Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effect as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphthaline and combustible materials now in common use.

TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED

IN THE TRIUMPH OF

REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE IRISH REPUBLIC, NEWSPAPER, PUBLISHED in New York City, is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely extended, but as in all such enterprises, the results are all consumed in the efforts at maintaining and extending that influence. The paper is a large and handsome Weekly, published at a subscription price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months for ONE DOLLAR, in packages of ten and upwards.

Members of Congress and all who are concerned in the triumph of Republican principles will find the Republic an efficient campaign document.

DAVID BELL, LL. D.,
MICHAEL SCANLAN,
MAJ. JAMES HAGGERTY,
Editors of the Irish Republic.

We heartily concur in recommending the Irish Republic as an efficient and able ally of the Republican party. We believe its circulation as suggested will do great good to the cause.

Secretary Union Republican Congressional Com.
WM. E. CHANDLER,

I can supply parties with the Republic as I get 100 copies weekly.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering from the baleful influence from the effects of early indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] at their pallid emaciated and disfigured [illegible] broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases [illegible] for years and who [illegible] without mercury at any [illegible] who are afflicted [illegible] interested in the welfare of [illegible] the many pretended doctors [illegible] luring all diseases [illegible] imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and their places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any one who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was not fully [illegible] either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus diplomas and certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients, letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read this advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy[illegible]tf
